As a musician he achieved a high degree of success in the music industry as a member of some of the top music groups in the world, including Sly & The Family Stone (named by MSNBC as one of the top 10 bands of all time and who was specially honored at the 2006 Grammy Awards Show), The Tokens (whose hit "The Lion Sleeps Tonight" sold over 12 million copies), The Elvin Bishop Group, and Rubicon (who closed the largest paid-ticket event in history). His college education was in engineering, psychology and theology. Before returning in 1982 to Christianity, Dennis delved into 19 different approaches to lifestyle, truth, problem solving and personal growth, which makes his personal testimony very interesting and entertaining.
